On January 23, 1904, Alesund was burned at night. It was one of the most important fires in Norway.

The city was built in wood, and for a reason that it is unknown, the entire city was burned.

First, the inhabitants had to quickly leave the city, only in one minute's time. Only one person died.

After that, Kaiser Wilhem II of Germany, helped this small town sending them 4 ships with materials to build their homes. The city was built with stone and brick over 1904-1907.
