

Mohamed Bakkali 3B

ALESUND

It is a city that was burned.

I was in my house when suddenly the bell rang. It meant there was a fire.

My parents, my brothers and I ran out to the coast no to set burnt.

We were scared a lot because we had never experienced a fire in the village.

Everything was destroyed by the fire, we rebuilt our house, but we had a hard time some neighbors also rebuilt their home's but many could not, and moved to another town.